KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.
RACIAL MATTERS

Confidential Informant [ ] advised on November 28, 1959, that [ ] U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., stated on November 25, 1959, that he had received information that a [ ] had obtained an application for a charter for a new Klan group from the office of the Secretary of State, Atlanta, Georgia.

Confidential Informant [ ] advised on November 25, 1959, that [ ] stated that he had learned that [ ] of the Jonesboro Unit of the U. S. Klans, was head of the group attempting to impeach [ ] [ ] stated further that [ ] also an official of the Jonesboro Klavern, was involved in the conspiracy and had contacted [ ] Georgia State [ ] of the U. S. Klans, and asked him if he would accept the position of [ ] [ ], which [ ] refused.

[ ] advised on November 30, 1959, that [ ] called a special meeting of Klan officials on November 28, 1959. According to [ ] conducted the meeting, and in his opening remarks said "We have traitors which are trying to tear up the Klan from within". [ ] said that [ ] gave a lengthy talk on splinter groups attempting to cause disunity in the U. S. Klans, and finally [ ] asked [ ] his reasons for obtaining an application for a new Klan group. [ ] replied that he thought two groups could fight for the same thing without being enemies. [ ] added, however, that he thought the matter had gone as far as it was going, according to [ ]

ENCLOSURE

KLAN, INC.

[ ] gained the impression that a petition for a charter had not been filed up to this time. [ ] explained to [ ] that to file for a charter for a new group would be against the Constitution of the U. S. Klans, and would mean that he was failing to keep his oath to uphold the U. S. Klans. [ ] stated that [ ] said he had the Klan at heart, and "was not mad with anyone", and offered to resign from the U. S. Klans. [ ] accepted [ ] resignation, and [ ] left the Klavern.

[ ] stated also at the above meeting [ ] read an order of banishment for [ ] a weekly newspaper published in Decatur, Georgia. [ ] told the group that [ ] was banished forever from the U. S. Klans as he had become affiliated with [ ] and a Klan organization which [ ] is trying to organize. [ ] also stated that [ ] could be reinstated only through the Imperial Office.

[ ] advised on December 3, 1959, that at a Klan meeting held by the Union City, Georgia Unit, U. S. Klans, on December 1, 1959, there was heated discussion concerning the resignation of [ ] [ ] stated that several Klansmen resigned from the U. S. Klans at this meeting, including [ ]

[ ] advised on December 5, [ ] that at a Klan meeting held in Atlanta on December 3, 1959, [ ] told the group he was quitting the U. S. Klans as [ ] was not protecting its membership, and had done nothing to refute allegations made against him. [ ] referred to the following article, which appeared in the December 3, 1959 edition of "The Suburban Sentinel" described above:

RE: KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.

"IMPOSTER KLAN OPERATING IN GEORGIA ONE MAN KLAN HEADED
BY EDWARDS

"The U. S. Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Georgia, headed by one E. L. EDWARDS is no more the KKK than a high school dance.

"Upon investigation it has been learned that E. L. EDWARDS is sole owner of the organization, and it has been alleged that in order to keep from being placed on the Subversive list that he has turned over the names and addresses of every member to the Attorney General of the United States. If this alleged information is a fact, it ties in with the recent expose of EDWARDS by the Georgia Tribune.

"We have heard the remark many times that the U. S. Knights of the Ku Klux Klan was no more than impersonators of the original KKK. It has been alleged and proven that EDWARDS has no plans to help prevent the race mixing of the schools and it was a well known fact that the original KKK had a definite plan to prevent any Klansmen's child from ever going to a mixed school.

"The Georgia Tribune of October 29, 1959 said he had turned over a photostatic copy of the members applications to the Atomic Energy plant in Knoxville, Tenn., and that men were about to lose their jobs because of it.

"We do know one thing-- the organization has not paid this newspaper and some other newspapers for advertising.

"It seems a shame that the American people have been misled by this man into believing that he had the original KKK when he does not approach it in any form.

RE: KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.

"The original KKK had definite programs, and knew what they were doing, and usually completed any program that they had.

"The original K.K.K. stood prepared to set up private schools anytime they were needed.

"A suit by ELDON L. EDWARDS vs. Association of South Carolina Klans, which was tried before Judge C. C. WYCHE at Spartanburg, S. C., May 26, 1959:

"Validity of EDWARDS claim of copyright denied by order No. C. A. 6562 said order holding among other things that he acted as a mere copyist and therefore was not an author. That the mere aggregating of old material does not amount to ordinary skill sufficient to authorize a copyright.

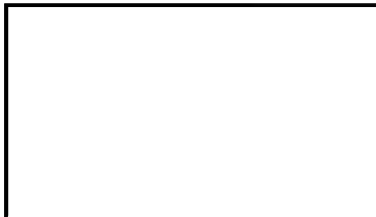

"In plain English, EDWARDS does not have a copyrighted KLORAN, as what he actually had tried to do was to change the original KLORAN around. Using a small amount of the original with his own ideas. This places present members of the U. S. Knights of the KKKK as actually not being members of the KKK, as he has never established Knighthood in the order and his men could not qualify for Knighthood as they have not been members of the KKK. Therefore his organization is an imposter organization, without knowledge of Klan Kraft."

[redacted] who apparently spearheaded the drive for a new group, was Exalted Cyclops of the Jonesboro, Ga. Klavern of the U. S. Klans. The Petitioners were listed as follows:

Informants advise that [redacted] has banished all members of the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., who affiliated with captioned organization.

[redacted] advised on 1/4/60 [redacted] went by the jail at Jonesboro, Georgia and through a contact unknown to informant, verified the above arrest. [redacted] stated that he felt [redacted] was getting money from some other source and was making an attempt to break-up the U. S. Klans.

Due to [redacted] apparent contact at the jail and the poor records maintained, it was not deemed advisable to make an open inquiry regarding this particular arrest. However, on 1/19/60, SA [redacted] requested Clayton County Police Chief HOWARD SMITH to review the records at Jonesboro, Ga. for information concerning the four persons listed above. Chief SMITH advised that he found no record for [redacted] but that [redacted] Jonesboro, Ga. was arrested 6/30/59 for driving under the influence. [redacted] was accompanied by [redacted] of Wickatunk, N.J. and [redacted] New York City, both of whom were charged with being drunk and disorderly. [redacted] were here to visit [redacted] who is in the USP, Atlanta, and who is also [redacted] according to Chief SMITH. Chief SMITH said the case against [redacted] is still pending, but that [redacted] were released, each making a $28 bond 6/30/59.

SA [redacted] reviewed the records of the U. S. Penitentiary, Atlanta on 1/20/60 and found that [redacted] Atlanta Penitentiary [redacted] is the [redacted] and that both [redacted] had visited [redacted]. The records indicated the address of [redacted] to be [redacted] Brooklyn, N. Y.

The circumstances surrounding the meeting of [redacted] is unknown and it is further unknown whether or not the meeting had anything to do with the organizing of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., or whether or not [redacted] obtained funds from this couple. No descriptions available as [redacted] [redacted] BROOKLYN, N. Y. will through the usual sources of information obtain background information concerning [redacted] in an effort to determine if he has an interest in captioned organization financially or otherwise.

NEW YORK

All except [redacted] were known to be very active in the Jonesboro Unit of the Association of Georgia Klans. The obtaining of this charter resulted in [redacted] banishing the petitioners from the U. S. Klans, and all members of the U. S. Klans who later affiliated with the new group were also banished by [redacted]. Informants are of the opinion that a very small number left the U. S. Klans.

Among those banished was [redacted] [redacted] in DeKalb County, Ga. [redacted] was very pro-U. S. Klans until he had some difficulty with [redacted] and has been very anti-U. S. Klans through his newspaper since that time. [redacted] has spoken very favorably of the Federated Klans of Ala. and Citizens Council type groups.

[redacted] orally advised on 2/23/60 that [redacted] advised that there would be a meeting of many Klan groups in Atlanta on February 27 and 28, 1960, and that these groups would attempt to unite in opposition to [redacted] of the U. S. Klans. [redacted] told informant that he was now working for [redacted] of the Alabama Klans, and felt that [redacted] was one of the most intelligent men in the country, and should be head of the combined Klan groups.

AT 157-60

According to informant [redacted] said that he was no longer affiliated with [redacted] of Columbus, Ga. as [redacted] wanted to be head of his own group rather than affiliate with other Klan groups. [redacted] indicated to informant that [redacted] who has organized several Klan type organizations, would not be present at this meeting. Informant stated that the meeting on the coming Saturday and Sunday would be held in the Henry Grady Hotel in Atlanta. Informant further advised that [redacted] stated [redacted] of Dallas, Texas, would represent Klan groups in that area.

b6
b7C
b7D

On 2/23/60, [redacted] Henry Grady Hotel, Atlanta, advised that the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, [redacted] Atlanta, Ga., telephone [redacted] had reserved meeting rooms 300, 301, and 302 from 5:00 p.m. to 12 midnight on Saturday, 2/27/60, and from 8:00 a.m. to noon on Sunday, 2/28/60, under the column headed "Number Expected" was listed 25 for each room. The cost of each room on each day was listed as $25.00.

A casual examination of this section of the hotel on 2/24/60, revealed that meeting room #300 is on one side of the hall, and the other two rooms are across the hall, none of the rooms being connected. The rooms are all fairly large size, and it is believed they could easily accommodate more than twenty-five persons.

[redacted] orally advised on 2/24/60, that [redacted] in discussing the above meeting at the Henry Grady Hotel, indicated he had a great distrust for [redacted] and further indicated that while he would be allowed to attend this consolidation meeting, they did not expect to allow him to affiliate. Further, that [redacted] said that [redacted] had been invited to attend, but had not indicated a desire to attend. [redacted] indicated to informant that [redacted] ARP of Chattanooga, Tenn., would be present and further indicated that he felt [redacted] with his Tenn. and North and South Carolina groups would be the logical man to head this new group.

This informant further stated orally that [ ] has spent considerable money for Klan forms and robes, but that no organized meetings have been started by this group as they continue in a period of organization. Numerous correspondence from surrounding offices indicate that several Klan groups will be represented in Atlanta for the weekend meeting.

b6

All receiving offices should alert informants for any information indicating a representative from a Klan type organization is planning on attending this meeting.

Nothing of importance took place until 5:00 P.M. on Saturday. The meeting was called to order at 5:10 P.M. in Room 300 of the Henry Grady Hotel, with [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The meeting was opened with the usual prayer by [REDACTED] The chairman explained that the purpose of the meeting was to join together all of the Klans into the old Original Simmons and Bedford Klan of 1916. The chairman asked for comment about joining together from those present and requested them to identify themselves when they

[REDACTED] an unidentified administration and representation, etc. This discussion went on until about 11:15 P.M., when the meeting adjourned for one hour and at 12:15 A.M., Sunday, February 28, 1960, the Imperial Officers from each state: Grand Dragons, Assistant Dragons, Secretary-Treasurers and all Imperial Wizards, were to reassemble in Room 1103, the hotel room of [redacted] for the purpose of setting up a national organization structure, decide program and strategy. All others were instructed to reassemble at 9:00 A.M. on February 28, 1960, in Room 300, at which time the leaders would report on progress made toward affiliation and organization of one National Council of Klans.

[redacted] said that in the closed meeting held from 12:15 to 3:30 A.M., attended by state officers of the various Klans, it was decided that wherever a negro problem developed or existed, the newly-formed National Council would give the local police officials two days to straighten the negroes out, or the Klan would move in in force to maintain segregation. If necessary, they would bring Klan members from other states to assist. [redacted] said the leaders could not get together on how to set up the administration of the newly-formed National Council.

b7D

About 9:30 A.M., Sunday, February 28, 1960, the entire group reassembled in Room 300. [redacted] He announced the state leaders had agreed on strategy, but could not agree on how to set up the administration of the new Grand Council. He asked for those present to present their ideas.

Someone from every group spoke and offered various ideas. The result of this discussion was that those present unanimously voted to report to their respective state groups; to arrange for delegates from each state group to be elected; to work out an agreement for affiliation with the new National Klan Council; send delegates to Chattanooga, Tennessee on March 13-14, 1960, to meet at the Klavern meeting place, 2523 Glass Street, Chattanooga.

The number of delegates was not limited. Affiliation, administration and strategy will be finally completed and formulated at this meeting so that the Klan will be able to present a united fighting front against the "Negro-Communist-Jew conspiracy." They will also form plans and set the date for a national convention of all Klans under the National Council to be held in Columbia, South Carolina, not later than three weeks after the Chattanooga meeting. At the national convention the national officers of the new Grand Council will be elected and the administrative set-up of the Council will be established and voted upon.

This meeting was adjourned and those present returned to their homes.

[ ] did not realize that J. B. STONER is disliked by these Klan leaders because he is taking foreigners and Catholics into his Klan. Consequently, when XAVIER appeared he was challenged by several Klan leaders who were going to throw him out. He saved himself by claiming affiliation with [ ] supported him. [ ] later made a speech about J. B. STONER being a good Jew fighter." This did not rest well with the group because they are fighting integration by negroes and are not fighting the Jews.

Everyone was instructed by whispers prior to each meeting not to speak in favor of violence because they felt the meeting place was microphoned, and they should use care. Despite this, [ ] made a statement that anyone aiding or assisting in integration should be grabbed and whipped or killed. [ ] claimed the FBI was aiding and leading negroes in the current store racial disorder in Chattanooga.

Newspaper men were not allowed to cover the meetings. An NBC television man from Jacksonville, named [ ] was allowed coverage. He took pictures inside.

MM 100-11349

Everyone was well covered with robes and hoods except HENDRIX, JONES, SCOTT and a few others. JONES and HENDRIX spoke for television.

[ ] proposed that on the last Saturday of March, 1960 (March 26) at 9:00 P.M., all Klans in the 17 Southeastern States arrange to burn crosses wherever possible. This proposal was accepted and agreed upon by those present.

Informant advised that due to the extremely large group, noise by talking of the delegates during introductions, that some of the above names may not be complete or initials may be in error and the chartered name of the Klan organizations may differ from those listed above but names listed above were those generally used during the conference. Informant pointed out that approximately 134 delegates were present; however, he was only able to obtain names of those listed above. He stated only those states listed above were represented even though H. J. JONES told the press that 17 states were represented.

Informant advised that prior to the first large assembled meetings of delegates on February 27, 1960, that [redacted] beginning at 3:00 P.M. February 27, 1960. Those present at this meeting were [redacted]

[redacted] of KKKK, Inc. [redacted] The purpose of this meeting was to discuss certain of the Klan leaders who were invited to determine if they and their organizations would be acceptable in the KKKK, Inc. if organized consisting of all the small Klan groups.

The first discussion was concerning [redacted] ASSOCIATION OF FLORIDA KLANS, INC. [redacted] accused [redacted] of reporting to outsiders, including the press, some incidents in the past concerning Klan activities and [redacted] was very much opposed to [redacted] being asked to join and stated he had had great differences with [redacted] in the past in relation to Klan activities in Florida.

He explained this by stating he received some requests from individuals in Africa to join his Klan organization and sent some literature. He was then questioned concerning his association in the past with [ ] He said he had been a Klan leader in Florida for many years and usually men active in racial matters as [ ] and [ ] contact Klan leaders and under these circumstances he was contacted. No decision was made at this conference to accept or reject [ ] and his group.

The next discussion was concerning the differences between the USK, KKKK, Inc., and DK, KKKK, Inc., at Chattanooga, Tennessee.

[ ] advised the current members of DK, KKKK, Inc., who were former members of the USK, KKKK, Inc., at Chattanooga, had disagreements with other members and tried to form a separate Klavern of the USK, KKKK, Inc., in Chattanooga but [ ] USK, KKKK, Inc., had refused so they formed a new Klan organization. [ ] stated he had no ill feelings toward the bulk of the members of the USK, KKKK, Inc., at Chattanooga and felt they could once again get together in a new Klan organization. He pointed out there were large numbers of good Klansmen in Chattanooga, Tennessee, and Rossville, Georgia, vicinity and all should be in one strong organization.

Informant advised this meeting ended just before the large assembly of all delegates at 5:00 P.M., February 27, 1960, at the Henry Grady Hotel, Atlanta, Georgia. [redacted]

[redacted] reported that approximately 134 delegates had been invited from 17 states representing all Klan groups except the USK, KKKK, Inc. The meeting was opened by a [redacted]

[redacted] DK, KKKK, Inc., Dalton, Georgia. Then [redacted] advised the delegates the purpose of this meeting was to form one large Klan organization throughout the nation under a central leadership, with organized plans and purpose, to promote the true meaning of Klansmanship as the by-laws and ritual were originally written by Col. W. J. SIMMONS in 1916.

[redacted] congratulated those present, especially [redacted] for making this meeting possible and pointed out the Klansmen should band together to fight liberalism, Negroism, NAACPism, and Communism. He offered a resolution that all those present adopt the W. J. SIMMONS Ritual and By-Laws of 1916. This resolution was passed.

The next speaker was [redacted] Federated Klans of Alabama, who stated he had been a Klansman since 1924, leader of Federated Klans of Alabama since 1949, and had always advocated unity. He also advised those present he had tried repeatedly to unite with the USK, KKKK, Inc., [redacted] but had not received any encouragement from [redacted] He said there were many good Klansmen in the USK, KKKK, Inc., and hoped that all present together with these good Klansmen from the USK, KKKK, Inc., could unite in the near future to form a great organization.

Next speaker was [redacted] KKKK, Inc., Atlanta, Georgia, who said he hoped all Klans could unite as they were in the 1920's.

b6
b7D

[redacted] DK, KKKK, Inc., Chattanooga, Tennessee, was introduced who in turn introduced [redacted] one of the main leaders and planners of the DK, KKKK, Inc., although he does not hold any official office in this organization. [redacted] stated all Klansmen need to preach and practice Klankraft and DK, KKKK, Inc., favor unity so all can work together in harmony toward same goal.

[redacted] then introduced [redacted] of the Rossville, Georgia, Klavern of the DK, KKKK, Inc. [redacted] of Rossville, Georgia, Klavern of the USK, KKKK, Inc., and [redacted] of the USK, KKKK, Inc., for the year 1957 until banned from this organization in October 1957. [redacted] stated he favored unity of Klansmen and criticized E. L. [redacted] for his dictatorship in the USK, KKKK, Inc.

[redacted] then introduced [redacted] Rossville, Georgia, who represents the DK, KKKK, Inc., in a civil suit in U. S. District Court, Chattanooga, Tennessee, against USK, KKKK, Inc., in a copyright matter. [redacted] criticized [redacted] and stated [redacted] was very contrary and refused to cooperate with other Klansmen.

Next speaker was [redacted] Columbia, S. C., representing Association of South Carolina Ku Klux Klan, Inc. He stated he was in favor of unity of Klansmen and also criticized [redacted] USK, KKKK, Inc., and pointed out his organization had won a civil suit against [redacted] and the USK, KKKK, Inc. He reportedly gave [redacted] for the DK, KKKK, Inc., a copy of the U. S. District Court order in the civil suit between USK, KKKK, Inc., and Association of South Carolina Ku Klux Klan.

[redacted] National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., St. Petersburg, Florida, was the next speaker. He stated he favored unity and was glad to be present. He stated he had been accused of many things such as advocating accepting Negroes into his Klan organization, association with [redacted] and many other things he did not mention. He again explained these items as he did in the closed session set forth above. He concluded the only salvation was to unite the Klan forces to fight together with central planning and leadership and through this method they could build the greatest organization in the world.

[redacted] Dayton, Ohio, representing CHRISTIAN KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, of which, according to some of those present, [redacted] is reported to be [redacted], was introduced. He immediately defended [redacted] stating he had worked with him for years and [redacted] had done more to expose people in high places than any other person. He pointed out [redacted] has exposed [redacted] a Jew who infiltrated the Association of Georgia Klans, Inc., he had picketed the White House in Washington, D. C. and had attended meeting of Congressman JOHN WOOD in Chicago, Illinois. He said [redacted] had made some mistakes but he must defend [redacted] and his actions.

Informant stated [redacted] ASSOCIATION OF SOUTH CAROLINA KU KLUX KLAN, Inc., objected to [redacted] and CHRISTIAN KNIGHTS KU KLUX KLAN and [redacted]. After the objection by [redacted] many other delegates also objected and at this point [redacted], KKKK, INC. [redacted] of this meeting, interceded, stating that [redacted] and CHRISTIAN KNIGHTS KU KLUX KLAN have been known for a long time and would not be recognized as an individual and organization. He said [redacted] and the organization have advocated many things contrary to the teaching of the original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan and for that reason would not be accepted into the new KKKK, Inc. being formed. Informant stated he understood that many inquiries were made among the delegates to determine who invited [redacted] or any representative of the CHRISTIAN KNIGHTS KU KLUX KLAN and all met with negative results. He stated [redacted] said later he believed [redacted] came uninvited.

[redacted] Biloxi, Mississippi, representing MISSISSIPPI KU KLUX KLAN, was the next speaker. He favored unity of all Klan groups and encouraged the organization of all Klans. He said he had adopted Mississippi and hoped to build a strong Klan in Mississippi and work with the Citizens Councils of that state.

At this point informant advised the meeting was interrupted by a television team invited by [redacted]

KX 157-28

All those present who wanted to be in the program, who had robes, were invited to stay and the others asked to move to the next room reserved by [ ] for this meeting.

Photographs and film was taken of those who remained and [ ] [ ] acted as speaker for those present. After this intermission the meeting was continued. Informant advised [ ] left at intermission and did not return, stating he could not go along with [ ] group.

(FNU) [ ] Decatur, Georgia, was the next speaker and spoke on Klandraft and concluded by urging those present to unite in one organization.

[ ] Tallahassee, Florida, was the next speaker, also representing National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. [ ] urged those present to work, organize one organization and build it into a very strong group. The meeting was then recessed at 11:45 P.M. until the next morning, February 28, 1960.

A meeting of a select group of leaders was then held in Room 1101, Henry Grady Hotel, from 12:00 midnight until 2:00 A.M. Those present were [ ]

[ ] The purpose of this private meeting was to determine if these individuals and the organizations they represented could agree on action already taken or suggested, could work together, and if they were in favor of one great Klan organization with one leadership and combined plan and objective and eliminate the many small Klan organizations. All those present agreed they could and wanted such an organization.

Confidential Informant [ ] advised the meeting of all delegates was called to order by [ ] at the Henry Grady Hotel, Atlanta, Georgia, at 9:10 A.M. February 28, 1960. He complimented those present on the progress that had been made and pointed out there were many who had not been called upon to express their views but it would be impossible to call on everyone, however, he wanted to call on a few additional delegates. At this

b7C
b7D

point he called upon (FNU) [ ] South Carolina, who said they all should work together, form one organization, and stated the South Carolina Klansmen were in favor of unity into one such organization.

The next speaker, name unknown, reportedly was from Miami, Florida. He advised he had been a Klansman and member of the CIO but found he could not serve both organizations and did not believe that [ ] could either. He said he had turned in his CIO membership card and wanted to know why [ ] had not done so also.

b7D

He said he favored uniting the various Klans into one Klan organization and seconded the suggestion they plan another organizational meeting for the leaders to work out the details of such a merger. He stated they could work out these problems as much as possible between now and the next scheduled meeting. The informant was unable to furnish any additional information or description of this individual.

The informant reported at this point that [ ] took charge of the meeting. It was voted on and decided that the leaders of the various Klan organizations meet for further planning on consolidation of the Klan organizations into one group known as the KKKK, Inc., at Columbia, South Carolina, sometime in May, 1960, exact date to be set at a later time. It was suggested all leaders try to work out any problems that might arise both locally and as a whole between now and the scheduled meeting at Columbia. All those present agreed.

[ ] DK, KKKK, Inc., Rossville, Georgia, suggested that a local meeting of the Klansmen in North Georgia, North Alabama, and Tennessee, meet at the DK, KKKK, Inc., hall, 2523 Glass Street, Chattanooga, Tennessee, to work out any local problems sometime in March 1960. This was agreed and the informant reported a tentative date of March 12-13, 1960 was set. He also said that many of the leaders present from other areas than the local area mentioned said they would attend this meeting to assist in the progress and get pointers for settlement of their own local problems.

[redacted] suggested that they discuss the recent wave of Negro sit down strikes at white lunch counters across the country. He said the Negroes, NAACP and Communists thrive on violence in promoting their organizations and collection of funds. He pointed out the situation in the nation's capital, Washington, D. C., is far worse racewise than any other city in the United States. He pointed out the best solution for Klansmen was to organize, get their own people registered to vote, elect officials who give the Klansmen a fair deal. In this connection the informant stated that [redacted]

[redacted] DK, KKKK, Inc., Chattanooga, stated that Chattanooga had recently had racial trouble in that city resulting from the Negroes conducting a sit down strike at white lunch counters in downtown stores in Chattanooga, and the Chattanooga Police Department had brought the situation under control.

[redacted] Swanse, South Carolina, urged those present to unite and expressed confidence that the various Klans could unify into a strong organization.

[redacted] Montgomery, Alabama, representing the Federated Klans of Alabama, Inc., urged all those present to be present at the meeting at Chattanooga and in the meantime they should study the works of Colonel W. J. SIMMONS. He stated he favored unity of all Klans and planned to be present at Chattanooga.

[redacted] KKKK, INC., told those present he had secured a charter through the Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, to operate a Klan organization known as the KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC. He sponsored a resolution which was accepted by those present that no release would be given to the press without some agreement of the leaders and being authorized to make such a release by the leaders. He also suggested that members present refrain from knocking other Klans that may not be represented, that included [redacted] USK, KKKK, Inc., since these organizations contain some good Klansmen which may later be interested in joining with this new movement. This was also passed as a resolution. The meeting was then adjourned at 12:20 P.M. February 28, 1960.

pointed out there was one man present who could lead all the Klans into close cooperation and national prominence. He did not name this man in his speech, but later stated in private conversation he was referring to [redacted]

[redacted] of the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan was the next speaker. Although it had been previously agreed at a prior meeting of the group which was held in Atlanta that no member of any Klan group would insult another group or Klansman or make any statement of a slanderous nature against them, [redacted] began his speech claiming one [redacted] of Texarkana, Arkansas, had stolen his "Kloran", and his Klansmen from the State of Arkansas. [redacted] claimed that [redacted] along with some men from Pine Bluff, Arkansas, had been banished and outlawed from the Klan because they were gamblers and crooks, and that they started what they called a Klan of their own calling it the Association of Arkansas Klans. After [redacted] speech there was a thirty minute recess.

[redacted] stated that following the recess, the first speaker was [redacted] of Pine Bluff, Arkansas, who began defending [redacted] at which time [redacted] acted as though he were about to faint or was having a heart attack, and was escorted from the hall and to his hotel room. [redacted] was allowed to go on with his answers to [redacted] charges although [redacted] was no longer present to defend himself against any countercharges. [redacted] stated he had proof [redacted] had been indicted in Texas some years past as a "con-man" and embezzler, and he had taken money for robes which he never delivered and had operated an integrated orphanage in Texas. This speech by [redacted] created quite an uproar as both the South Carolina and Florida groups were followers of [redacted] had been elected as their national leader. These two groups decided they desired to talk privately with [redacted] after the meeting.

Another breach in cooperation and unity came when a speaker named [redacted] from Anniston, Alabama, called [redacted] a liar and a "self-appointed" [redacted]. [redacted] of South Carolina quieted the hall down with the comment that everyone should obey the rules laid down at Atlanta as the only possible way that there could be any cooperation or agreement between the different groups of Klansmen.

A motion was made, seconded, and carried that each Grand Dragon would appoint or cause to have elected two men to represent his particular Klan and these men would thereafter be empowered to act for each Klan and act as Grand Council of all Klans represented at this meeting. It was decided there would be no Grand Chairman, but at each meeting the Chairman for the next meeting would be elected by the Council.

[redacted] of South Carolina was elected to be the next [redacted] and it was decided the next meeting would be held at the Skyline Club in West Columbia, South Carolina, on April 10, 1960. This meeting was to start at 10:00 a.m. and to run until 4:00 p.m. on April 10, 1960.

A motion was also made, seconded, and carried that no Klan group that was not represented at the meeting of March 12, 1960 could join the group at a later date unless the Klan group was completely investigated and voted on by the Grand Council.

All of the Klans represented at the meeting were to try to cooperate with each other in any way possible and were to come to the next meeting in Columbia April 10, 1960, prepared to present plans which might help each other.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:00 p.m.

After the adjournment of the regular meeting, the Florida and South Carolina delegations met with the Arkansas group and asked for proof of the claims made against [redacted] [redacted] showed them a letter written by [redacted] thanking one member for $600. that had been sent to [redacted] to purchase a car, yet [redacted] had denied that he even knew the man, according to [redacted] also had a photograph of [redacted] indicating he was head of an integrated orphanage. The Florida and South Carolina delegates decided they would meet at the Park Hotel at 12:30 a.m. to make some sort of decision as to what course to follow regarding [redacted] [redacted] of Dallas, Texas.

[redacted] advised that [redacted] from Florida and South Carolina met in Room 802 of the Park Hotel in Chattanooga, Tennessee, from about 1:00 to 3:30 a.m. and from 8:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. on March 13, 1960. The purpose of the meeting was to make some sort of decision as to whether these two groups would continue to follow their elected leader, [redacted] of Dallas, Texas, or if they should try to get rid of him as their Imperial Dragon. One of those present mentioned that under the constitution and bylaws as stated at the National Convention which was held at Montgomery, Alabama, at the time [redacted] was elected, they had no power to get rid of an Imperial Dragon once he was elected until his term of office expired. [redacted] pointed out that he thought [redacted] was guilty, but that he felt that he should be given the right to defend himself against any and all charges in an open meeting before they finally decided upon his guilt.

b7D

A motion was made and carried that the states of Florida and South Carolina would forward no more money to [redacted] until after the meeting to be held in Columbia, South Carolina, April 10, 1960.

A motion was also made that nothing would be said to the local Klaverns about [redacted] until after the April 10 meeting as almost all the high ranking officers had advised their local Klaverns to join under the leadership of [redacted] and they would now be very much embarrassed to let everyone know what a great mistake they had made.

This meeting was adjourned on the note that regardless of what else might happen the Florida Ku Klux Klan and the Association of South Carolina Klans would stick together.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised as follows:

A meeting of Klan leaders from the Southeastern United States was held at the Imperial Headquarters of the Dixie Knights of the Ku Klux Klan at 2523 Glass Street, Chattanooga, Tennessee, on March 12 and 13, 1960. The meeting was scheduled to start at 5:00 PM, but was delayed to 6:00 PM because some persons were delayed in travel by the bad weather.

The first formal meeting was called to order at 6:00 PM, March 12, 1960, by [redacted] of the Dixie Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. About 100 men were present from Arkansas, Florida, Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, South Carolina and Texas. [redacted] of North Carolina wired that he would be unable to attend because of snow.

Among leaders identified from each state were the following:

Tennessee:
Florida:

South Carolina:

[redacted] and several unidentified persons from Newberry, South Carolina

The first order of business was a debate on the administration of the new consolidated Klans by a National Grand Council. They could not agree on whether the National Grand Council could issue orders to each individual Klan. It was agreed that the Council, to consist of three men and the Grand Dragon of each Klan, and one alternate delegate from each Klan, would establish policy, remove undesirable council members, channel information of interest to all Klans for dissemination to all Klaverns. Local Klans could still exercise their own initiative on action to be taken on local problems and could take prompt action without having to first clear it through the Grand Council; each Klan would furnish funds to the Grand Council for use in employing attorneys to defend Klan members and employ lobbyists to further Klan interests in various state legislatures. The amount to be assessed on each Klan would be decided at the Convention in Columbia, South Carolina on April 9, 1960. The Grand Council will take the initiative in establishing National policy and securing national publicity and issuing Klan publications in furtherance of the Klan program.

b7D

The Grand Council will be known as the National Grand Council of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and all Klans will be affiliated with the Council, but will still maintain their separate individual identities and names in the states in which they now operate.

The delegates to the Grand Council will be selected by the Grand Dragon of each individual Klan. The Grand Dragons are supposed to attend all Grand Council meetings. At the Columbia convention they will decide on where these meetings will be held and how often the Council will meet. There will be no permanent chairman. The chairmanship will rotate in order among the Grand Dragons with a different one serving at each meeting.

The paper work, correspondence and general administration will be handled by one full-time permanent secretary, to be selected by the Grand Council at Columbia, South Carolina. He will receive a salary from the funds received from the various Klans. His headquarters will also be decided at the Columbia convention.

During the meeting [redacted] from Texas made a speech against the activity of the Arkansas Klan because they had not cooperated in organizing the Klans in Arkansas and Texas. He also accused the Grand Dragon of Arkansas of defending a negro in a civil suit against a white man.

b7D

Arkansas retaliated by accusing [redacted] of embezzling $1500.00 collected for Klan robes, and also having taught in the past in an integrated school on the Mexican border.

This argument resulted in [redacted] having a heart attack; he was carried out to the hospital. Some of the persons present donated funds for Davis' hospital bill.

[redacted] was residing at the [redacted] Arkansas made a good case against [redacted] and he will probably be eliminated from the Klan in the near future. His heart attack stopped any final action on this matter.

b6
b7D

All present were instructed that upon return to their home Klaverns they should work with the police and take any action necessary to break up the current negro lunch counter demonstrations. Also, they were to burn as many crosses as possible on the last Saturday of March at 9:00 P.M.

The Columbia convention on April 9, 1960 will be open to all Klansmen from the Klans represented at this Chattanooga meeting. At this convention the Grand Council members who have been selected by the Grand Dragons to sit with the Grand Dragons on the Council will be installed for one year and the Council will announce the permanent secretary's identity.

[redacted] from Columbia is being considered for the [redacted] position. The Grand Dragons, prior to the convention, will draw up for presentation and voting the policies, authority, financial assessment, and selection of delegates for the Council. All authorized Klan members allowed to attend the Columbia convention will then vote upon the matters presented to them by the Grand Dragons.

Arrangements for the Columbia convention April 9, 1960, at 10:00 A.M. are being handled by Belton Mims of Columbia, Assistant Dragon for Columbia.

This meeting broke up about 2:30 A.M., March 13, 1960, and all present returned to their homes, to reassemble at Columbia in April.

Informant advised the meeting was adjourned at approximately 11:30 P. M. March 12, 1960.

The Informant advised that a heated argument resulted during this meeting between two representatives and that during this argument one the representatives had a heart attack and had to be removed from the hall.

Confidential Informant [ ] on March 16, 1960, advised that he had had an opportunity to see a letter written on March 13, 1960, by [ ] Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., Atlanta, Georgia, mailing address [ ] Atlanta 1, Georgia. This letter from [ ] stated that he had attended the meeting at Chattanooga, Tennessee, on the night of March 12, 1960 and met with the representatives of other Klan groups. He stated that after seeing these individuals and discussing problems with them, he had discarded the idea of the merger between all Klan groups and thought it now best to build a new order with the kind of material that good Klans are composed of and not take in Klan members from the already organized Klan groups.

[ ] stated he was now concentrating in the formation and organization of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., and would try to build this into a large, strong Klan group. He pointed out in his letter that [ ] Chattanooga, Tennessee, whom he had given a Kleagle (organizer) Commission card for the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., had returned his commission to [ ] by mail without any explanation.

Re: Ku Klux Klan Convention
Columbia, South Carolina
April 9 - 10, 1960

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished the following information on April 12, 1960:

On April 9, 1960, leaders of the various Klan groups in the southeastern United States gathered at Columbia, South Carolina, in preparation for a meeting to finalize the consolidation of all Klans for a joint operation. Most of the Klan leaders arrived on Saturday, April 9, 1960, and most of them stayed at the Wade Hampton and Jefferson Hotels in Columbia. Throughout Saturday no formal meetings were held. Most of the Klan leaders and delegates passed the time on Saturday visiting friends, relatives, drinking at the hotels and bars around town.

 of the Association of Carolina Klans, remarked that all of the Grand Dragons of the Klans had decided as follows:

- 1.) The Grand Dragons would make up a Secret Supreme Council to govern all of the Klans;
- 2.) There will be a Public Supreme Council, consisting of the Grand Dragons and two delegates from each Klan;

3.) The Public Supreme Council will discuss strategy and decisions of the Secret Supreme Council, and will carry out the orders of the Secret Supreme Council through their various Klan groups.

[ ] also said that the Grand Dragons had decided to use shotguns with #4 Shot (squirrel shot) to break up Negro demonstrations when and where the police failed. Klansmen will shoot at the Negroes' legs, and it is not desired to kill them, but to halt them. Klan robes or identity of Klansmen will not be revealed when and if shotguns are used. The Secret Supreme Council will decide when such action is necessary, and will order the Titans and Exalted Cyclops in the troubled areas to carry out these shootings. [ ] said that this decision to use force would not be openly discussed or mentioned in the meeting of the Public Supreme Council, to be held on April 10, 1960. [ ] said that it was not to be discussed, because thereafter it would be too easy to show conspiracy to use force in any subsequent court action, and this would involve all of the principal Klan leaders who had participated in such discussion, and would handicap the Klan in carrying out its program to put down these demonstrations.

[ ] gave the impression that the Grand Dragons had all decided on this program at some secret meeting held prior to April 9, 1960.

[ ] said that Mississippi was expecting trouble, [ ] from Biloxi, Mississippi, had

On Sunday, April 10, 1960, a meeting of Grand Dragons and Klan Delegates was held at the Sky Line Club in West Columbia, South Carolina. This is the meeting place and headquarters of the Association of South Carolina Klans. The meeting started at about 9:30 AM, with members of the National Grand Council, which consists of the Grand Dragons of each Klan, and official delegates of each Klan represented. The following were in attendance:

First - They voted approval that all Klans would work to assist one another financially and otherwise in any emergency when requested to do so by the Grand Council.

Second - They voted approval that each Klan in each state build up and handle its own finances, but the finances would be available for use by the National Grand Council in any emergency in any state.

Third - They resolved that in the event the United States was attacked by any foreign government, the Klan would offer its complete services to defend the United States.

Fourth - That strangers, non-residents, foreigners or anyone seeking to stir up race trouble in the south would be contacted by the Klan in the troubled area, and removed oneway or another from the troubled area by the Klan.

Fifth - They agreed to get the list of Communist organizations declared subversive by the Attorney General of the United States; and, thereafter, wherever these Communist groups were found active in the south, the Klan would break them up by one means or another and identify themselves as Klansmen in so doing.

Sixth - They resolved that all Klansmen would be governed by orders of their officers, and the Grand Council, and failure to obey orders would result in banishment from the Klan.

Seventh - The Chairman of the National Grand Council would appoint his own Secretary - Treasurer and [redacted] is to serve as [redacted] until a new one is elected at some future date.

The following was not decided, and was left open because all of the Klans were not present at this meeting. It was agreed that another meeting of the National Grand Council was necessary, to be held on May 22, 1960, at the Whitley Hotel in Montgomery, Alabama. All Klans will have to attend that meeting, and another Chairman will be selected. It will be decided what amount of money each Klan will have to contribute to support the National Office of the Grand Council, to pay salaries and expenses for the National Chairman and his Secretary - Treasurer.

A master plan for communication of directions will also be decided. To formulate this plan, [redacted] created the position of Adjutant General of All Klans. [redacted] has been delegated to present at Montgomery a means of code communication to be used to transmit orders and instructions from one state to another. This is a security precaution.

The meeting ended at 1:30 PM. After luncheon, an open meeting was held until 4:30 or 5:00 PM, which was attended by all Klansmen who were not delegates or members

RACIAL MATTERS

On April 13, 1960, [ ] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that a special meeting of the heads of several Klans and their delegates, or a consolidation of Klans, was held at the Skyline Club in West Columbia, South Carolina, on Sunday, April 10, 1960. ## SPECIAL MEETING OF KLAN ORGANIZATIONS

[redacted] of the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan had been convicted of various felonies including one for transporting a minor female across the state line for immoral purposes. This proof was presented behind closed doors to the delegates from Florida and South Carolina only and nothing regarding the matter was brought out on the floor of the open meeting. [redacted] stated that Florida and South Carolina decided in a private session to return all seals and appointment papers to [redacted] in the near future thereby dropping out from under [redacted] rule. It was brought out during the private session that [redacted] had sent word to Florida and South Carolina forbidding them from attending the meeting in Columbia on April 10, 1960, but instead they were to attend a special called meeting in Texarkana, Arkansas, on April 17, 1960. It was decided that none of the Florida or South Carolina Klansmen would attend the meeting called by [redacted] and scheduled for April 17, 1960.

Each Grand Dragon present was requested to name the men who were to act as delegates from his state. When [redacted] of Charlotte, North Carolina, was asked to name men from North Carolina, he acted rather confused and although he finally named two men he gave the impression to the other delegates that he did not have any Klan or active Klavern under his control. Later during a private discussion when [redacted] was not present it was decided to question him further on the matter at a later date.

b6

It was decided at the meeting that this consolidation of Klans would form ideas during the next five weeks regarding ways to boycott various businesses who employ Negroes who take part in "sit-downs" or other forms of agitating and also some way to put ads in local newspapers letting the public know that the Klan was still active.

It was decided that the next meeting of this group of Klan organizations would be held in Montgomery, Alabama on Sunday, May 22, 1960, beginning at 9:00 A.M. Anything that is approved at the meeting in Montgomery would then be carried out in any active State the same way as the cross burning which was held on March 26, 1960, and participated in by the various Klan organizations. All the delegates present at this meeting seemed to think that the last cross burnings had proved to be very good from a publicity standpoint since it showed the people there was some sort of unity between all the different states where the crosses were burned. Mention was made and the delegates present felt that a boycott of a group or newspaper ads all put out or began at the same time would also be very effective.

It was decided at the meeting that a special request would be sent [redacted] of Anniston, Alabama, requesting that [redacted] attend the meeting scheduled for Montgomery, Alabama. This is to be done because the delegates felt that [redacted] did not attend the meeting in Columbia because he thought that [redacted] of Montgomery, Alabama, would be present and also the delegates felt that [ ] controls a larger group of men in Alabama than [ ] controls.

The meeting was adjourned at approximately 5:00 P.M., April 10, 1960.

(AT: OO)Re Charlotte letter to Bureau 4/18/60, and Miami airtel to Bureau 4/15/60.

Referenced communications and enclosures relate that the next convention of proposed component Klans of captioned group is scheduled to be at the Whitley Hotel, Montgomery, Ala., on 5/22/60. Charlotte raised the question of informants coming to Montgomery to cover the meeting.

[redacted] Whitley Hotel, reliable and established contact of Mobile, advised on 4/25/60 that he had not yet received any request from captioned group for a meeting room and said that if and when such request is received, he does not intend to rent them any space. Referring to the recently publicized local matter in which [redacted]

[redacted] for the Arkansas Klan which is affiliated with captioned group, passed a number of worthless checks in Montgomery, [redacted] said that he is convinced that captioned group is a disreputable organization, and would very likely embarrass his hotel if he continues to permit them to meet there. Mr. [redacted] said that he was originally misled into renting them meeting space before because the arrangements were made by [redacted] a wealthy and presentable person. [redacted] said that his own word is not final on this matter, but that he is confident that the owners of the hotel will agree with him that no further dealings should be had with this group.

If KKKK, Inc. is not able to get the Whitley Hotel, they will probably not meet in Montgomery.

It appears that the only Klan group in Mobile Office area which was affiliated with KKKK, Inc., namely Federated Ku RUC

RE: KU KLUX KLAN CONVENTION,
ATLANTA, GEORGIA
MAY 22, 1960

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished the following information on May 24, 1960:

On May 22, 1960, leaders of the various Klan groups in the Southeastern United States, gathered at Atlanta, Georgia, in a meeting to further finalize the consolidation of all Klans for a joint operation. Most of the Klan leaders arrived on Saturday, May 21, 1960, and most of them registered at the Henry Grady Hotel in Atlanta. No formal meetings were held on Saturday. Some of the leaders and delegates gathered in the various rooms at the hotel, where they spent their time drinking and holding informal discussions.

of a Negro home which resulted in the death of a Negro woman. This dynamiting took place 15 or 20 miles from the Tennessee-Georgia state line and [ ] felt that it was a job well done and was very boastful of this fact. He stated that there was enough "stuff" there to blow them both to kingdom come. [ ] stated that he was sorry the woman was killed and also commented that the papers had said that this was not the result of a racial situation. [ ] related that they will not say that any more, as the authorities now know that this Negro was a stooge for MARTIN LUTHER KING and the NAACP.

After the discussion on this problem, a committee was appointed, headed by [ ] to check the two hotels in Montgomery to determine if there were legitimate reasons for the cancellations of their reservations, or if the cancellations were a result of it being a Klan meeting. If it is determined that the reservations were canceled for the latter reason, then steps will be taken to send out literature to boycott these two hotels in Montgomery.

SECOND:

FIFTH:

They voted approval to hold the next meeting of the National Council of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan on July 17, 1960, at Orlando, Florida. All agreed this situation was well handled and any further situation arising on the beaches could be handled in the same manner by the Klan on a local level.

NINTH:

A discussion was held concerning the school situation and all were in agreement that more drastic steps must be taken to stop any further school integration. It was further agreed that the best way to stop integration in schools is to "knock off" the leaders, be they white or colored.

TENTH:

A short discussion was held concerning law enforcement, the FBI and other Government agencies.

RE: KU KLUX KLAN CONVENTION

It was agreed that conflict with law enforcement agencies would not be tolerated and all Klan members were cautioned not to become involved with the law, even though they were in complete disagreement with these people.

ELEVENTH:

Several of the leaders of the various Klans made short speeches, after each speech a vote was taken to determine if there was general agreement with the speaker. Some of the Klan members making speeches were:

[redacted] stated that he was not going to beat around the bush and if necessary he was going to resort to violence, and if the rest of the members at the meeting did not agree with him, he was going home.

[redacted] received unanimous agreement from those at the meeting.

b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] in their remarks, also advocated violence if necessary to keep segregation in the South. They also received unanimous approval from those present.

[redacted] remarks were less violent in nature and he stated that he believed it would not be necessary to resort to violence in Texas.

RE: KU KLUX KLAN CONVENTION

[ ] stated that he would have copies made of [ ] and that they would be distributed to the Grand Dragons and the Imperial Wizards only.

[ ] in a discussion with various members of the Klan, related that the Negro block-busting in Atlanta had been broken up. He stated that a house which had been sold to a Negro family in Atlanta was blown up the day before the family was to move in. He also related that the Mayor of Atlanta had been warned concerning this matter of block-busting and that if he did not stop it, he (the Mayor) would be pushing up daisies in the cemetery.

[ ] explained that block-busting was a means by which unscrupulous real estate men obtained valuable property by threats of Negro people moving into the community.

South Carolina meeting could sit in at any future meeting unless they be voted in unanimously, so the first business at hand was to identify any present who were new and vote to see if they would be allowed to remain. [redacted] who claims he has a group in Houston, Texas, that go by the name of Hyksos, and are klan-like in actions and believe in the same things that the klan does and that he came to this meeting to get in touch with the right people so that he could start an association of Klans in connection with this group. He is a close friend of [redacted] and apparently a part-time Union Organizer, United Southern Employees Association, Inc.

There was a group present representing the Association of Georgia Klans, apparently under the [redacted] and vouched for by [redacted] of South Carolina.

A third group was the [redacted] of West Memphis, Arkansas who is organizing in Tennessee under the Association of Arkansas Klans.

A motion was made to allow these three groups to sit in at this and future meetings. Motion carried unanimously.

[redacted] of Chattanooga, Tennessee, suggested that this group get together and design a Klan Flag that would be used by all member groups as an Association Flag instead of each group or Klan having it's own different flag. There were many different designs suggested and it was finally decided that a committee consisting of three men would be appointed to bring to the next meeting several different samples made up and ready to be voted on. Committee appointed as follows: [redacted] of Federated Klans of Alabama; [redacted] of Florida Ku Klux Klan, and [redacted] of Dixie Klans, Inc., of Chattanooga, Tennessee.

[redacted] of Biloxi, Mississippi had called [redacted] at his room [redacted] at about 1:00 a.m. to tell [redacted] he could not be present at this meeting but would appreciate notice of time and place of next meeting.

A motion was made to hold a Motorcade to Stone Mountain, Georgia, on a day around the 20th of September, this day to be known as Klan-Day. All Klans to take part in this motorcade are to start from their home state and try to hold a parade as large as possible all the way to Stone Mountain. Motion carried. This motorcade to take place after the next meeting of this group so that each group will have time to have flags made that will be identical.

A recommendation was made by [redacted] that some sort of advertizing committee should be appointed to look into the possibility of educating the people of the north to the Southern point of view. He stated that each state group should try to get their state legislature to pass an appropriation for such a state educational fund. He stated that Florida almost got such a bill through during their past term of the legislature.

[ ] of Pine Bluff, Arkansas, gave a long speech, regarding the use of advertising and printed pamphlets in the Klan fight against Negro sit-in's at lunch counters. He introduced [ ] as the man who had carried the American flag at a parade in Little Rock, Arkansas and who a police chief called "BILLY CLUB" had taken the flag away from and thrown on the ground when he arrested [ ]. He also hinted that when "BILLY CLUB" and his wife were found shot to death later in their home, in Little Rock, that it had not been a suicide or a murder and suicide, but that it had been taken care of by certain parties instead. Sounded more like a bragging lie than the truth.

[ ] of West Memphis, Arkansas, stated that there was a possibility of there being a communist front organization started to be able to publicly back anything that the NAACP or the communists did, and during elections they would publicly announce in favor of any candidate that the Klan did not want elected. This movement is to be kept very secret, but further developments are supposedly to be reported on at the forthcoming Orlando meeting.

[ ] stated that the meeting adjourned at 2:30 p.m.

Confidential [redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, on June 24, 1960, furnished the following information concerning an executive conference of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., consisting of executive officers of this organization: Grand Dragons, Imperial Officers, Kleagles, and Exalted Cyclops held at the Klan Hall, Riverdale, Georgia, June 11 and 12, 1960.

State of Florida for the KKKK, Inc., and [redacted] of the KKKK, Inc. for the State of Mississippi, to the platform. They were introduced by [redacted] to those present. When the meeting began, there were [redacted] delegates present. [redacted] then addressed those present stating that he had no intentions of discriminating against any klansman or various klavern of this organization, but felt that this should be a planning meeting and executive officers, Grand Dragons, Imperial Officers, Kleagles, and Exalted Cyclops should only be present to discuss the various plans of this organization. He stated he appreciated that a number of the such officers could not be present, but that either a Kleagle or an Exalted Cyclops from these various areas was present to represent their various groups.

[redacted] then asked if there were any resolutions, at which point [redacted] stated they had a joint resolution to enter. [redacted] then read the resolution which had been prepared prior to the meeting by [redacted]

b7D

The resolution was to institute a program, whereby all klansmen would work on an educational program to educate everyone as to what the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan stood for including a segregation program opposing integration of schools, churches, and restaurants. It was introduced that they would work with citizens, citizens' groups, teachers, PTA organizations, school and church groups, as to the meaning and definition of a U. S. Citizen under the U. S. Constitution and point out that the Democratic system of the United States Government would be destroyed if complete integration were accomplished.

[redacted] made a motion that the resolution include segregation in hotels, motels, swimming pools, and beaches. This amendment was approved and added to the original resolution which was adopted.

The various members and officials present were then asked for their comments concerning the above resolution.

[redacted], Tuscaloosa, Alabama, then spoke to the delegation. He stated he was constantly traveling throughout the State of Alabama in connection with his klan work and that great progress had been made in the State of Alabama by using an educational system and carrying to the people of the State of Alabama the aims and objectives of the klan in preserving segregation throughout the South.

[redacted] for the State of Mississippi, then spoke to those present stating that he had been using an educational system similar to the one just adopted in the State of Alabama. He pointed out that his group regularly meets with civic groups, teachers, PTA groups, church groups, and other school groups in an effort to preserve segregation in the South.

[redacted] for the State of Florida from Tampa, Florida, then spoke to the group, stating an educational program of the klan had always been the basic part of any klan program, as well as for other fraternal orders and civic groups. He pointed out there had been much criticism and that the klan groups should not become involved in politics. He pointed out that in order to maintain our Democratic system of Government that klansmen must do some politics. They should exercise their right to vote and to contact others and try to persuade those to qualify and vote; that klansmen should take the issues at stake to the people and explain to them by the use of an educational program the aims and purposes of the klan and the preservation of a segregated South. He pointed out that the citizens of Florida had become tired of LEROY COLLINS, Governor, and by taking their program and desires to the people of Florida as a group on a house-to-house type campaign, meeting with civic groups, church groups, they had succeeded in their recent election by electing a Governor of Florida, CARLTON.

[redacted]

All stated they agreed with the discussion and adoption of the resolution as it had been passed. The meeting was then adjourned at approximately 11:00 p.m. to be reconvened at 10:00 a.m., Sunday morning, June 12, 1960.

At the morning session, [ ] plus many others whose names were not recalled, made brief speeches concerning ideas in connection with promotion of the klan in their various areas. The majority of the promotion programs were the same.

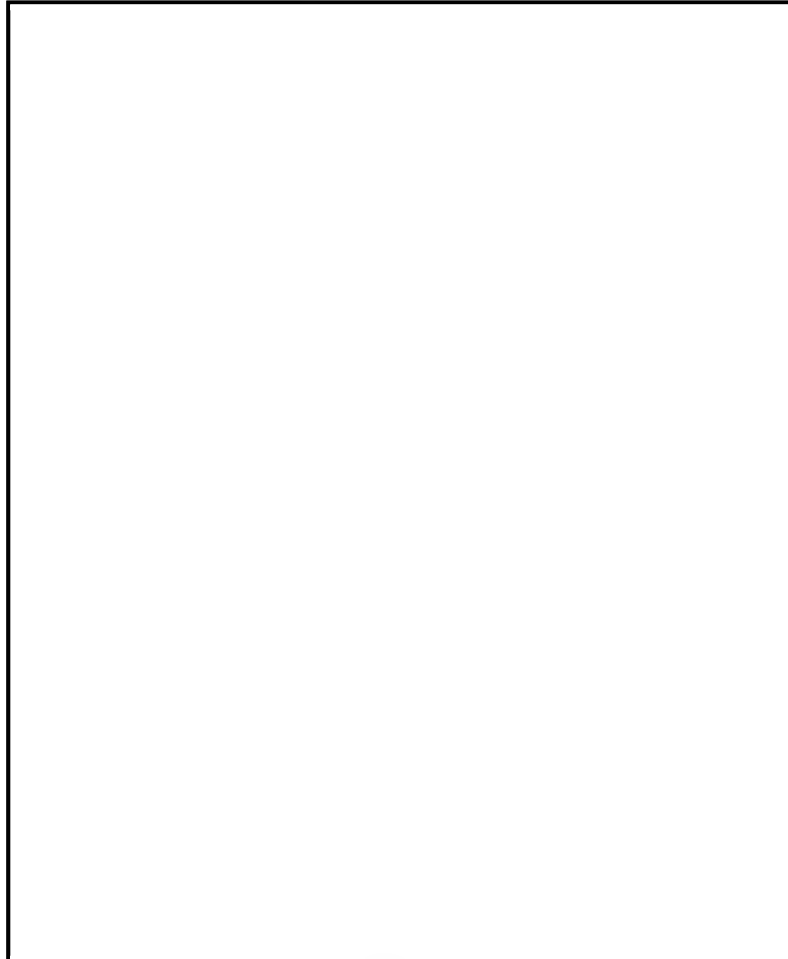

(FNU) [ ] a resident from the vicinity of Jonesboro, Georgia, who was a former old-time Kleagle, U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., under [ ] expressed his experience in organizing for various klan groups. He stated the best method was to go into a town or community, contact about a dozen men, pick the best one of the lot to serve as his representative and then visit this representative once a week and encourage these twelve men to make additional contacts. On his weekly visits he would pick up the applications already secured and that he stated he had never failed to organize and issue a charter in a community where he had used the above method.

[ ] made a suggestion that each klavern hold a briefing period once each month for the purpose of the educational program and require all new members to receive special instructions in the klan program as to what it actually stood for, their desires, aims and purposes. bullet, regardless of the honor, rank, dignity, or authority of the persons, whatever may be their condition in life, either public or private, as I at any time may be directed so to do by any agents of the Pope or superior of the Brotherhood of the Holy Father of the Society of Jesus.

In confirmation of which I hereby dedicate my life, soul, and all corporal powers, and with the dagger which I now receive I will subscribe my name written in my blood in testimony thereof; and should I prove false or weaken in my determination, may my brethren and fellow soldiers of the militia of the Pope cut off my hands and feet and my throat from ear to ear, my belly opened, sulphur burned therein with all the punishments that can be inflicted upon me on earth and my soul shall be tortured by demons in eternal hell forever.

That I will in voting always vote for a K. of C. in preference to a Protestant, especially a Mason, and that I will leave my party so to do; that if two Catholics are on the ticket I will satisfy myself which is the better supporter of the Mother Church and vote accordingly.

That I will not deal with or employ a Protestant if in my power to deal with or employ a Catholic. That I will place Catholic girls in Protestant families that a weekly report may be made of the inner movements of the heretics.

That I will provide myself with arms and ammunition that I may be in readiness when the word is passed, or I am commanded to defend the church either as an individual or with the militia of the Pope.

8-2-18

I, _____, now in the presence of Almighty God, the blessed Virgin Mary, the blessed St. John the Baptist, the Holy Apostles, St. Peter and St. Paul, and all the saints, sacred host of Heaven, and to you, my Ghostly Father, the superior general of the Society of Jesus, founded by St. Ignatius Loyola, in the pontification of Paul the III, and continued to the present, do by the womb of the Virgin, the matrix of God, and the rod of Jesus Christ, declare and swear that His Holiness, the Pope, is Christ's vice regent and is the true and only head of the Catholic or Universal Church throughout the earth; and that by virtue of the keys of binding and loosing given His Holiness by my Savior, Jesus Christ, he hath power to depose heretical kings, princes, States, Commonwealths, and Governments and they may be safely destroyed. Therefore to the utmost of my power I will defend this doctrine and His Holiness's right and custom against all usurpers of the heretical or Protestant authority whatever, especially the Lutheran Church of Germany, Holland, Denmark, Sweden, and Norway and the now pretended authority and Churches of England and Scotland, and the branches of same now established in Ireland and on the Continent of America and elsewhere, and all adherents in regard that they may be usurped and heretical, opposing the sacred Mother Church of Rome.

I do now denounce and disown any allegiance as due to any heretical king, prince, or State, named Protestant or Liberals, or obedience to any of their laws, magistrates, or officers.

I do further declare that the doctrine of the Churches of England and Scotland, of the Calvinists, Huguenots, and others of the name of Protestants or Masons to be damnable, and they themselves to be damned who will not forsake the same.

I do further declare that I will help, assist, and advise all or any of His Holiness's agents, in any place where I should be, in Switzerland, Germany, Holland, Ireland, or America or in any other kingdom or territory I shall come to and do my utmost to extirpate the heretical Protestant or Masonic doctrines and to destroy all their pretended powers, legal or otherwise.

I do further promise and declare that, notwithstanding I am dispensed with to assume any religion heretical for the propagation of the Mother Church's interest, to keep secret and private all her agents' counsels from time to time, as they intrust me, and not divulge, directly or indirectly, by word, writing, or circumstances whatever but to execute all that should be proposed, given in charge, or discovered unto me by you, my Ghostly Father, or any of this sacred order.

I do further promise and declare that I will have no opinion or will of my own or any mental reservation whatever, even as a corpse or cadaver (perinde ac cadaver), but will unhesitatingly obey each and every command that I may receive from my superiors in the militia of the Pope and of Jesus Christ.

That I will go to any part of the world whithersoever I may be sent, to the frozen regions north, jungles of India, to the centers of civilization of Europe, or to the wild haunts of the barbarous savages of America without murmuring or repining, and will be submissive in all things whatsoever is communicated to me.

I do further promise and declare that I will, when opportunity presents, make and wage relentless war, secretly and openly, against all heretics, Protestants and Masons, as I am directed to do, to extirpate them from the face of the whole earth: and that I will spare neither age, sex, or condition, and that I will hang, burn, waste, boil, flay, strangle and bury alive these infamous heretics: rip up the stomachs and wombs of their women, and crush their infants' heads against the walls in order to annihilate their execrable race. That when the same can not be done openly, I will secretly use the poisonous cup, the strangulation cord, the steel of the poniard, or the leaden

Confidential Informant <sup>deceased</sup> [redacted] advised on November 28, 1959, that [redacted] U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., stated on November 25, 1959, that he had received information that a [redacted] had obtained an application for a charter for a new Klan group from the office of the Secretary of State, Atlanta, Georgia. [redacted]

Confidential Informant [redacted] advised on November 25, 1959, that [redacted] stated that he had learned that [redacted] of the Jonesboro Unit of the U. S. [redacted] advised on November 30, 1959, that [redacted] [redacted] called a special meeting of Klan officials on November 28, 1959. According to [redacted] conducted the meeting, and in his opening remarks said "We have traitors which are trying to tear up the Klan from within". [redacted] said that [redacted] gave a lengthy talk on splinter groups attempting to cause disunity in the U. S. Klans, and finally [redacted] asked [redacted] his reasons for obtaining an application for a new Klan group. [redacted] replied that he thought two groups could fight for the same thing without being enemies. [ ] added, however, that he thought the matter had gone as far as it was going, according to [ ]

[ ] gained the impression that a petition for a charter had not been filed up to this time. [ ] explained to [ ] that to file for a charter for a new group would be against the Constitution of the U. S. Klans, and would mean that he was failing to keep his oath to uphold the U. S. Klans. [ ] stated that [ ] said he had the Klan at heart, and "was not mad with anyone", and offered to resign from the U. S. Klans. [ ] accepted [ ] resignation, and [ ] left the Klavern.

[ ] stated also at the above meeting [ ] read an order of banishment for [ ] "The Suburban Sentinel", a weekly newspaper published in Decatur, Georgia, [ ] told the group that [ ] was banished forever from the U. S. Klans as he had become affiliated with [ ] and a Klan organization, which [ ] is trying to organize. [ ] also stated that [ ] could be reinstated only through the Imperial Office.

[ ] advised on December 3, 1959, that at a Klan meeting held by the Union City, Georgia Unit, U. S. Klans, on December 1, 1959, there was heated discussion concerning the resignation of [ ] [ ] stated that several Klansmen resigned from the U. S. Klans at this meeting, including [ ]

[ ] December 5, 1959, that at a Klan meeting held in Atlanta on December 3, 1959, [ ] told the group he was quitting the U. S. Klans as [ ] was not protecting its membership, and had done nothing to refute allegations made against him. [ ] referred to the following article, which appeared in the December 3, 1959, edition of "The Suburban Sentinel" described above:

AT 157-60

"IMPOSTER KLAN OPERATING IN GEORGIA ONE MAN KLAN HEADED

"The U. S. Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Georgia, headed by one E. L. EDWARDS is no more the KKK than a high school dance,

"Upon investigation it has been learned that E. L. EDWARDS is sole owner of the organization, and it has been alleged that in order to keep from being placed on the Subversive list that he has turned over the names and addresses of every member to the Attorney General of the United States. If this alleged information is a fact, it ties in with the recent expose of EDWARDS by the Georgia Tribune.

"We have heard the remark many times that the U. S. Knights of the Ku Klux Klan was no more than impersonators of the original KKK. It has been alleged and proven that EDWARDS has no plans to help prevent the race mixing of the schools and it was a well known fact that the original KKK had a definite plan to prevent any Klansmen's child from ever going to a mixed school.

"The Georgia Tribune of October 29, 1959 said he had turned over a photostatic copy of the members applications to the Atomic Energy plant in Knoxville, Tenn., and that men were about to lose their jobs because of it.

"We do know one thing-- the organization has not paid this newspaper and some other newspapers for advertising.

"It seems a shame that the American people have been misled by this man into believing that he had the original KKK when he does not approach it in any form.

AT 157-60

"The original KKK had definite programs, and knew what they were doing, and usually completed any program that they had.

"The original K.K.K. stood prepared to set up private schools anytime they were needed.

"A suit by ELDON L. EDWARDS <sup>deceased</sup> vs. Association of South Carolina Klans, which was tried before Judge C . C. WYCHE at Spartanburg, S. C., May 26, 1959:

"Validity of EDWARDS claim of copyright denied by order No. C. A. 6562 said order holding among other things that he acted as a mere copyist and therefore was not an author. That the mere aggregating of old material does not amount to ordinary skill sufficient to authorize a copyright.

"In plain English, EDWARDS does not have a copyrighted KLORAN, as what he actually had tried to do was to change the original KLORAN around. Using a small amount of the original with his own ideas. This places present members of the U. S. knights of the KKKK as actually not being members of the KKK, as he has never established Knighthood in the order and his men could not qualify for Knighthood as they have not been members of the KKK. Therefore his organization is an imposter organization, without knowledge of Klan Kraft."

[ ] at the meeting on December 3, 1959, stated if the above story were not true, [ ] should have prevented it from being published. According to [ ] the following Klansmen walked out of this meeting:

AT 157-60

All of the above men turned in their Klan card, according to [redacted] stated that [redacted] stayed through the meeting, but threw his card on the desk and walked out at the close of the meeting [redacted]

[redacted] stated that [redacted] said he had to reprimand [redacted] for holding unauthorized Klan notorcadades, and shooting firearms on the public highways. [redacted] said [redacted] had worked hard to build several Klaverns, and now apparently wanted to take them over. According to [redacted] stated before he left that [redacted] had worked hard to build up the Jonesboro Unit, was very sincere in his work, and had increased the membership to about two hundred and fifty.

"The Atlanta Journal", a daily newspaper published in Atlanta, Georgia, carried the following article in its edition of December 9, 1959:

"KLAN BICKERING LEADS TO NEW GROUP HERE

"Bickering within the ranks and leadership of Georgia's heretofore dominant Ku Klux Klan has brought about a split in the organization, it was reported Wednesday.

"The formal breakup was heralded by the chartering of a new Klan group in Fulton County called the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc.

deceased "The splinter organization resulted from an internal squabble in the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., the group headed by ELDON EDWARDS of Atlanta, informed sources said.

"The EDWARDS organization has not been the only Klan in Georgia, but it has had more members than any other KKK group. EDWARDS in 1957 claimed a membership of 50,000 in Georgia and other states where his group had affiliates. In 1958, the Anti-Defamation League estimated the total at 12,000 to 15,000.

"In MACON, the Georgia grand dragon of the EDWARDS Klan termed the newly chartered group insignificant and said it 'should soon fall by the wayside.'

"~~LEE~~ DAVISON, the dragon, said 'our organization does not go along with organizations of this sort'.

"With the school situation as it is in Atlanta, this type of organization might prove detrimental to the general Ku Klux Klan program,' DAVISON said.

AT 157-60

"Informed sources said that individual Klansmen and some units of the EDWARDS Klan have been peeling off and going to other KKK organizations.

"Some have joined the Christian Knights of the KKK, a Columbus-headquartered group, and some have gone over to the Associated Klans, a Montgomery, Ala. outfit, it was reported.

"Financial matters were said to be among the subjects causing discord in the U. S. Klans.

"EDWARDS could not be reached for comment on the new organization.

"The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., said in its charter it was to be a nonprofit, benevolent and charity group in which 'there shall be united only white race male persons of sound mind, good moral character. . . .'

"Listed as incorporators were R. L. BING, Sr., Stockbridge, H. J. JONES, W. B. PARR and J. T. CAMPBELL, all of Jonesboro. The charter was granted in Fulton Superior Court by Judge VIRLYN B. MOORE."

not be complete or initials may be in error and the chartered name of the Klan organizations may differ from those listed above, but names listed above were those generally used during the conference. Informant pointed out that approximately 134 delegates were present; however, he was only able to obtain names of those listed above. He stated only those states listed above were represented even though [redacted] told the press that seventeen states were represented.

[redacted] advised that prior to the first large assembled meetings of delegates on February 27, 1960, that [redacted] held a small meeting in his room, beginning at 3:00 P.M., February 27, 1960. Those present at this meeting were [redacted]

[redacted] The purpose of this meeting was to discuss certain of the Klan leaders who were invited to determine if they and their organizations would be acceptable in the KKKK, Inc. if organized consisting of all the small Klan groups.

AT 157-60

[ ] advised the meeting proceeded as follows:

The first discussion was concerning [ ] [ ] ASSOCIATION OF FLORIDA KLANS, INC.
[ ] accused [ ] of reporting to outsiders, including the press, some incidents in the past concerning Klan activities and [ ] was very much opposed to [ ] being asked to join, and stated he had had great differences with [ ] in the past in relation to Klan activities in Florida. During this discussion, [ ] was questioned concerning some of his past activities and associates which were not approved by those present. He was questioned concerning his past reported efforts to take Negroes into his Klan organization. He explained this by stating he received some requests from individuals in Africa to join his Klan organization and sent some literature.
He said he had never asked Negroes in the United States to join his Klan organization, and had instructed the individuals from Africa to use the literature he sent them as they desired.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

He was then questioned concerning his association in the past with [ ]
[ ]. He said he had been a Klan leader in Florida for many years, and usually men active in racial matters as [ ] contact Klan leaders, and under these circumstances he was contacted. He stated he did not agree with many of the things [ ] [ ] advocated. Informant advised at this point [ ] was dismissed so those remaining could discuss [ ] Tampa, Florida, representing Association of Florida Klans, Inc. Those present discussed [ ] and stated he was a loyal Klansman, opposed to violence, and night riding and due to some incidents, not named, [ ] has been forced to disband for the good of the Klan name and a lot of good Klansmen. No decision was made at this conference to accept or reject [ ] and his group.

AT 157-60

The next discussion was concerning the differences between the USK, KKKK, Inc., and DK, KKKK, Inc., at Chattanooga, Tennessee,

[redacted] advised the current members of DK, KKKK, Inc., who were former members of the USK, KKKK, Inc., at Chattanooga, had disagreements with other members and tried to form a separate Klavern of the USK, KKKK, Inc., in Chattanooga, but [redacted]

[redacted] USK, KKKK, Inc., had refused so they formed a new Klan organization. [redacted] stated he had no ill feelings toward the bulk of the members of the USK, KKKK, Inc., at Chattanooga, and felt they could once again get together in a new Klan organization. He pointed out there were large numbers of good Klansmen in Chattanooga, Tennessee, and Rossville, Georgia, vicinity, and all should be in one strong organization.

b7D

Informant advised this meeting ended just before the large assembly of all delegates at 5:00 P.M., February 27, 1960, at the Henry Grady Hotel, Atlanta, Georgia. [redacted] reported that approximately 134 delegates had been invited from seventeen states representing all Klan groups except the USK, KKKK, Inc. The meeting was opened by a [redacted] DK, KKKK, Inc., Dalton, Georgia. Then [redacted] advised the delegates the purpose of this meeting was to form one large Klan organization throughout the nation under a central leadership, with organized plans and purpose, to promote the true meaning of Klansmanship as the by-laws and ritual were originally written by Col. W. J. SIMMONS in 1916.

[redacted] congratulated those present, especially [redacted] for making this meeting possible, and pointed out the Klansmen should band together to fight liberalism, Negroism, NAACPism, and Communism. He offered a resolution that all those present adopt the W. J. SIMMONS Ritual and Bylaws of 1916. This resolution was passed.

The next speaker was [redacted] Federated Klans of Alabama, who stated he had been a Klansman since 1924, leader of Federated Klans of Alabama since 1949, and had always advocated unity. He also advised those present he had tried repeatedly to unite with the USK, KKKK, Inc., [redacted], but had not received any encouragement from [redacted]. He said there were many good Klansmen in the USK, KKKK, Inc., and hoped that all present together with these good Klansmen from the USK, KKKK, Inc., could unite in the near future to form a great organization.

Next speaker was (FNU) [redacted] KKKK, Inc., Atlanta, Georgia, who said he hoped all Klans could unite as they were in the 1920's.

[redacted] DK, KKKK, Inc., Chattanooga, Tennessee, was introduced who in turn introduced [redacted] one of the main leaders and planners of the DK, KKKK, Inc., although he does not hold any official office in this organization. [redacted] stated all Klansmen need to preach and practice Klankraft, and DK, KKKK, Inc., favor unity so all can work together in harmony toward same goal.

[redacted] then introduced [redacted] of the Rossville, Georgia, Klavern of the DK, KKKK, Inc., former Exalted Cyclops of Rossville, Georgia, Klavern of the USK, KKKK, Inc., and former Imperial Officer of the USK, KKKK, Inc., for the year 1957 until banned from this organization in October 1957. [redacted] stated he favored unity of Klansmen and criticized [redacted] for his dictatorship in the USK, KKKK, Inc.

[redacted] then introduced [redacted] Rossville, Georgia, who

Next speaker was [redacted] Columbia, South Carolina, representing Association of South Carolina Ku Klux Klan, Inc. He stated he was in favor of unity of Klansmen and also criticized [redacted] USK, KKKK, Inc., and pointed out his organization had won a civil suit against [redacted] and the USK, KKKK, Inc. He reportedly gave [redacted] for the DK, KKKK, Inc., a copy of the U. S. District Court order in the civil suit between USK, KKKK, Inc., and Association of South Carolina Ku Klux Klan.

b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted]
National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., St. Petersburg, Florida, was the next speaker. He stated he favored unity and was glad to be present. He stated he had been accused of many things such as advocating accepting Negroes into his Klan organization, association with [redacted] and many other things he did not mention. He again explained these items as he did in the closed session set forth above. He concluded the only salvation was to unite the Klan forces to fight together with central planning and leadership and through this method they could build the greatest organization in the world.

[redacted] Dayton, Ohio, representing CHRISTIAN KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, of which, according to some of those present, [redacted] is reported to be the leader, was introduced. He immediately defended [redacted] stating he had worked with him for years and [ ] had done more to expose people in high places than any other person. He pointed out [ ] has exposed [ ] who infiltrated the Association of Georgia Klans, Inc., he had picketed the White House in Washington, D. C., and had attended meeting of Congressman JOHN WOOD in Chicago, Illinois. He said [ ] had made some mistakes, but he must defend [ ] and his actions.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

[ ] stated [ ], ASSOCIATION OF SOUTH CAROLINA KU KLUX KLAN, INC., objected to XAVIER and CHRISTIAN KNIGHTS KU KLUX KLAN and [ ]. After the objection by [ ] many other delegates also objected, and at this point [ ] KKKK, INC., Chairman of this meeting, interceded, stating that [ ] and CHRISTIAN KNIGHTS KU KLUX KLAN have been known for a long time, and would not be recognized as an individual and organization. He said [ ] and the organization have advocated many things contrary to the teaching of the original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan and for that reason would not be accepted into the new KKKK, Inc. being formed. Informant stated he understood that many inquiries were made among the delegates to determine who invited [ ] or any representative of the CHRISTIAN KNIGHTS KU KLUX KLAN, and all met with negative results. He stated [ ] said later he believed [ ] came uninvited.

[ ] Biloxi, Mississippi, representing MISSISSIPPI KU KLUX KLAN, was the next speaker. He favored unity of all Klan groups and encouraged the organization of all Klans. He said he had adopted Mississippi, and hoped to build a strong Klan in Mississippi, and work with the Citizens Councils of that state.

AT 157-60

At this point, informant advised the meeting was interrupted by a television team invited by [redacted]. All those present who wanted to be in the program, who had robes, were invited to stay and the others asked to move to the next room reserved by [redacted] for this meeting. Photographs and film were taken of those who remained, and [redacted] acted as speaker for those present. After this intermission, the meeting was continued. Informant advised [redacted] left at intermission, and did not return, stating he could not go along with [redacted] group.

b6
b7C
b7D

(FNU) [redacted] Decatur, Georgia, was the next speaker, and spoke on Klankraft and concluded by urging those present to unite in one organization.

[redacted], Tallahassee, Florida, was the next speaker, also representing National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. [redacted] urged those present to work, organize one organization, and build it into a very strong group. The meeting was then recessed at 11:45 P.M. until the next morning, February 28, 1960.

A meeting of a select group of leaders was then held in Room 1101, Henry Grady Hotel, from 12:00 midnight until 2:00 A.M. Those present were [redacted].

[redacted]
[redacted] The purpose of this private meeting was to determine if these individuals and the organizations they represented could agree on action already taken or suggested, could work together, and if they were in favor of one great Klan organization with one leadership, and combined plan and objective, eliminating the many small Klan organizations. All those present agreed they could, and wanted such an organization.

AT 157-60

[ ] advised the meeting of all delegates was called to order by [ ] at the Henry Grady Hotel, Atlanta, Georgia, at 9:10 A.M., February 28, 1960. He complimented those present on the progress that had been made, and pointed out there were many who had not been called upon to express their views, but it would be impossible to call on everyone; however, he wanted to call on a few additional delegates. At this point, he called upon (FNU) [ ] South Carolina, who said they all should work together, form one organization, and stated the South Carolina Klansmen were in favor of unity into one such organization.

The next speaker, name unknown, reportedly was from Miami, Florida. He advised he had been a Klansman and member of the CIO, but found he could not serve both organizations, and did not believe that [ ] could either. He said he had turned in his CIO membership card, and wanted to know why [ ] had not done so also.

He said he favored uniting the various Klans into one Klan organization, and seconded the suggestion they plan another organizational meeting for the leaders to work out the details of such a merger. He stated they could work out these problems as much as possible between now and the next scheduled meeting. The informant was unable to furnish any additional information or description of this individual.

The informant reported at this point that [ ] took charge of the meeting. It was voted on and decided that the leaders of the various Klan organizations meet for further planning on consolidation of the Klan organizations into one group known as the KKKK, Inc., at Columbia, South Carolina, sometime in May, 1960, exact date to be set at a later time. It was suggested all leaders try to work out any problems that might arise both locally and as a whole between now and the scheduled meeting at Columbia. All those present agreed.

[redacted] DK, KKKK, Inc., Rossville, Georgia, suggested that a local meeting of the Klansmen in North Georgia, North Alabama, and Tennessee, meet at the DK, KKKK, Inc., hall, 2523 Glass Street, Chattanooga, Tennessee, to work out any local problems sometime in March, 1960. This was agreed and the informant reported a tentative date of March 12-13, 1960, was set. He also said that many of the leaders present from other areas than the local area mentioned said they would attend this meeting to assist in the progress and get pointers for settlement of their own local problems.

[redacted] suggested that they discuss the recent wave of Negro sit-down strikes at white lunch counters across the country. He said the Negroes, NAACP and Communists thrive on violence in promoting their organizations and collection of funds. He pointed out the situation in the nation's capital, Washington, D. C., is far worse racewise than any other city in the United States. He pointed out the best solution for Klansmen was to organize, get their own people registered to vote, and to elect officials who give the Klansmen a fair deal. In this connection, the informant stated that [redacted] DK, KKKK, Inc., Chattanooga, stated that Chattanooga had recently had racial trouble in that city resulting from the Negroes conducting a sit-down strike at white lunch counters in downtown stores in Chattanooga, and the Chattanooga Police Department had brought the situation under control.

In this connection, the informant stated that JACK [REDACTED] DK, KKKK, Inc., Chattanooga, stated that Chattanooga had recently had racial trouble in that city resulting from the Negroes conducting a sit-down strike at white lunch counters in downtown stores in Chattanooga, and the Chattanooga Police Department had brought the situation under control.

[REDACTED] Swansea, South Carolina, urged those present to unite and expressed confidence that the various Klans could unify into a strong organization.

[REDACTED] Montgomery, Alabama, representing the Federated Klans of Alabama, Inc., urged all those present to be present at the meeting at Chattanooga, and in the meantime they should study the works of Colonel W. J. SIMMONS. He stated he favored unity of all Klans, and planned to be present at Chattanooga.

[REDACTED] KKKK, INC., told those present he had secured a charter through the Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, to operate a Klan organization known as the KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC. He sponsored a resolution which was accepted by those present that no release would be given to the press without some agreement of the leaders, and being authorized to make such a release by the leaders. He also suggested that members present refrain from knocking other Klans that may not be represented, that included [REDACTED] USK, KKKK, Inc., since these organizations contain some good Klansmen which may later be interested in joining with this new movement. This was also passed as a resolution. The meeting was then adjourned at 12:20 P.M., February 28, 1960.

"KLAN SPLINTER GROUPS
HOLD MEETING HERE

"Representatives of Ku Klux Klan splinter groups in 10 Southern and three northern states met in Atlanta Saturday to consolidate their forces.

"Sessions were to continue through Sunday at the Henry Grady Hotel, where reservations for some 75 Klan representatives were made in the name of Imperial Wizard H. J. JONES of Jonesboro.

"The press was barred from the Saturday night session. Klansmen from Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana, Ohio, Michigan, and New York were expected.

"Conspicuously missing from the list of groups invited to attend was the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, headed by E. L. EDWARDS of Atlanta, an employee of an automobile assembly plant here.

"EDWARDS said the groups meeting here had been booted out of his organization for various reasons.

"Klansmen said the main purpose of the Atlanta meeting is to establish a working arrangement among the various Klan groups that will lead to a more compact organization."

"The Atlanta Journal" in its edition of March 2, 1960, carried the following article:

"RIVAL KLANS IN GEORGIA HURL CHARGES OF 'FAKE'

"A wide-open fight appears to have developed between two rival Ku Klux Klan groups in Georgia.

"The Imperial Wizard of 'The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. -- a new group organized in Atlanta this past weekend-- said Tuesday that the U. S. Klan, headed by E. L. EDWARDS of Atlanta, 'is a fake klan', with 'a fake klan leader'.

"Mr. EDWARDS said Monday that the new group is 'composed of outlaw splinter groups who have been kicked out by us for treason and what have you'.

"His charges were answered by H. J. JONES of Jonesboro, leader of the new group.

'Any true Klansman . . . recognizes the EDWARDS outfit as a fake,' Mr. JONES said Tuesday.

"'If he is looking for a fight, we will give him what he is looking for', he said.

"'Our constitution states that only white, male gentiles of good moral character will be accepted for membership, where EDWARDS' charter does not specify as to the type of person that can be accepted in the U. S. Klan,' Mr. JONES said.

"He added: 'Therefore, Negroes and others are eligible for membership in the U. S. Klan.'

"We feel the public is entitled to the true facts and not a one-sided statement made by some greedy splinter group leader," he said."

Speeches were continued until approximately 12:00 a.m., at which time [redacted] asked that each group give considerable thought to the possible unity under one head as a National Klan, and to give any suggestions at the 9:00 a.m. meeting to be held February 28, 1960, in the same room.

"The Atlanta Journal" in its edition of February 29, 1960, carried the following article:

"KLAN GROUPS MERGE TO GAIN MEMBERS

"By DOUGLAS KIKER

"Independent Ku Klux Klan groups from a disputed number of Southeastern and Southwestern states have consolidated as 'The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc.' as a result of a weekend meeting held in Atlanta.

"The new organization will have a membership of 'at least 42,000', in 17 states, according to H. J. JONES of Jonesboro, the Imperial Wizard.

AT 157-60

"'This is a new order composed of groups which have been operating independently for some time,' Mr. JONES announced.

"He said the consolidation does not include either the U. S. Klan-- headed by another Atlantian, E. L. EDWARDS-- or the Christian Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, a Columbus outfit.

"Mr. EDWARDS said Monday that his U. S. Klans would not recognize the new group.

"'It's an assumed name they picked up after being thrown out of our organization,' he said.

"He said the JONES organization was composed of 'outlaw splinter groups who have been kicked out by us for treason, or what have you,' and said that the meeting was attended by representatives from only five states, and not the 17 claimed by Mr. JONES.

"'All combined their membership wouldn't total 300', he said. As to the figure of 42,000 claimed by Mr. JONES, Mr. EDWARDS said, 'It would fool me if they had over 45.'

"He said that according to his information splinter group representatives from Georgia, Florida, South Carolina, Alabama and Tennessee attended the weekend meeting here, 'plus a man who lives part of the time in Mississippi and part of the time in New York who claimed to represent both states.'

"The new group will abide by the original

AT 157-60

1916 constitution and rituals as written by Col. W. J. SIMMONS, KKK founder, Mr. JONES said.

"The consolidation is apparently intended as a frontline challenge to the national U. S. Klan, headed by Mr. EDWARDS. Mr. JONES' klan was chartered in Fulton County on Dec. 7, 1959 after he split with EDWARDS, reportedly over financial matters.

"Mr. JONES said his organization will seek only high-type members. 'We don't intend to go out here and take the bums off the street,' he said.

"He said that within the next two weeks Kleagles-- Klan organizers-- will go into 30 additional states in a drive aimed at enlisting 10 million additional members within the next 18 months.

"He said New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware are among the states to be visited by Kleagles.

"The new group is holding a second meeting shortly, he said. He declined to identify the location of the meeting, but said that it was 'within 125 miles of Atlanta.'"

"The Atlanta Constitution" in its edition of March 1, 1960, carried the following article:

"NEW KLAN SEEKS 10 MILLION

"A new Ku Klux Klan group Monday announced plans to combine independent Klansmen in 17 states and seek 10 million more members in 30 states.

AT 157-60

"The infant organization promptly was termed a splinter group by another klan outfit's leader, who discounted membership claims of the new group.

"H. J. JONES of Jonesboro, said plans for a group known as the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., were formed at a weekend meeting. He said the new group combines 42,000 Klansmen from 17 Southeastern and Southwestern states.

"JONES said the organization will seek 10 million members, adding 'We don't intend to go out and take bums off the street.' He said the states to be visited by Klan recruiters include New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Delaware.

"Two other white supremacy groups operating in the South-- the U. S. Klan and the Christian Knights of the Ku Klux Klan --were not included in the merger.

"E. L. EDWARDS of Atlanta, who heads the U. S. Klan, said his organization would not recognize the new group. He said it is composed of 'outlaw splinter groups that have been kicked out by us for treason, or what have you.'

"EDWARDS said the weekend meeting was attended by representatives from only five states, not the 17 claimed by JONES, and declared the new group's membership wouldn't total 300. EDWARDS said he understood representatives from Georgia, Florida, South Carolina, Alabama, and Tennessee attended the meeting."

The first order of business was a debate on the administration of the new consolidated Klans by a National Grand Council. They could not agree on whether the National Grand Council could issue orders to each individual Klan. It was agreed that the Council, to consist of three men and the Grand Dragon of each Klan, and one alternate delegate from each Klan, would establish policy, remove undesirable council members, and channel information of interest to all Klans for dissemination to all Klaverns.

Local Klans could still exercise their own initiative on action to be taken on local problems and could take prompt action without having to first clear it through the Grand Council; each Klan would furnish funds to the Grand Council for use in employing attorneys to defend Klan members and employ lobbyists to further Klan interests in various state legislatures. The amount to be assessed on each Klan would be decided at the Convention in Columbia, South Carolina, on April 9, 1960. The Grand Council will take the initiative in establishing National policy and securing national publicity and issuing Klan publications in furtherance of the Klan program.

The Grand Council will be known as the National Grand Council of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and all Klans will be affiliated with the Council, but will still maintain their separate individual identities and names in the states in which they now operate.

The delegates to the Grand Council will be selected by the Grand Dragon of each individual Klan. The Grand Dragons are supposed to attend all Grand Council meetings. At the Columbia convention, they will decide on where these meetings will be held and how often the Council will meet. There will be no permanent chairman. The chairmanship will rotate in order among the Grand Dragons with a different one serving at each meeting.

The paper work, correspondence and general administration will be handled by one full-time permanent secretary, to be selected by the Grand Council at Columbia, South Carolina. He will receive a salary from the funds received from the various Klans. His headquarters will also be decided at the Columbia convention.

b7C

During the meeting [redacted] from Texas made a speech against the activity of the Arkansas Klan because they had not cooperated in organizing the Klans in Arkansas and Texas. He also accused the Grand Dragon of Arkansas of defending a Negro in a civil suit against a white man.

Arkansas retaliated by accusing [redacted] of embezzling $1500.00 collected for Klan robes, and also having taught in the past in an integrated school on the Mexican border.

AT 157-60

This argument resulted in [ ] having a heart attack; he was carried out to the hospital. Some of the persons present donated funds for [ ] hospital bill. [ ] was residing at [ ]. [ ] Arkansas made a good case against [ ] and he will probably be eliminated from the Klan in the near future. His heart attack stopped any final action on this matter.

All present were instructed that upon return to their home Klaverns they should work with the police and take any action necessary to break up the current Negro lunch counter demonstrations. Also, they were to burn as many crosses as possible on the last Saturday of March at 9:00 p.m.

The Columbia convention on April 9, 1960, will be open to all Klansmen from the Klans represented at this Chattanooga meeting. At this convention, the Grand Council members who have been selected by the Grand Dragons to sit with the Grand Dragons on the Council will be installed for one year and the Council will announce the permanent secretary's identity.

[ ] from Columbia is being considered for the [ ] position. The Grand Dragons, prior to the convention, will draw up for presentation and voting the policies, authority, financial assessment, and selection of delegates for the Council. All authorized Klan members allowed to attend the Columbia convention will then vote upon the matters presented to them by the Grand Dragons.

Arrangements for the Columbia convention April 9, 1960, at 10:00 a.m. are being handled by [ ] of Columbia, Assistant Dragon for Columbia.

AT 157-60

This meeting broke up about 2:30 A.M., March 13, 1960, and all present returned to their homes, to reassemble at Columbia in April.

[redacted] furnished the following information on March 13, and 16, 1960:

A closed meeting was held in the regular Klan Hall of the Dixie Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., Klavern No. 1, 2523 Glass Street, East Chattanooga, Tennessee, beginning at 5:00 P.M. on March 12, 1960. He stated this meeting was for delegates from other Klan organizations in southern states and delegates from other Klaverns of the Dixie Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., from Alabama and Georgia. [redacted] called upon the leaders of the various Klans represented to express their views regarding consolidation of all the various Klans in one Klan organization to be known as the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. with headquarters located at Atlanta, Georgia. Informant stated [redacted] called upon the various Klan leaders to express their views without naming the leaders and often not naming the Klan organization, but merely asking for the leader of the Klan group from a certain city to express his views. He advised that because of the above the exact names of the leaders and of the Klan groups they represented was not obtained.

He advised that the states represented were:

NORTH CAROLINA. [redacted] advised it was announced by [redacted] that he had received a wire from representative of Klans in North Carolina that due to inclement weather they would not be able to attend this meeting.

[redacted] advised that the leader from the South Carolina Klan group stated that all Klans could not work under the same leader or rules as all states had different laws governing various organizations, and that if they consolidated into one Klan group, they would end up with a dictator type organization. He stated the South Carolina Klan groups were not in favor of combining into one Klan organization, but wanted to remain as separate Klan groups and work together with other Klan organizations in southern states toward the same aims and purposes.

[redacted] advised that (first name unknown) [redacted] of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., Atlanta, Georgia, wanted all of the Klan organizations to give up their individual Klan names, form one large Klan organization, and have one Klan leader located at Atlanta, Georgia. He reported they had a man in Atlanta, Georgia, whom he did not name, who had all of the old Klan records which was the only true Klan organization. He urged all to vote to consolidate into one Klan group with headquarters at Atlanta, Georgia, known as the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc.

[ ] advised that representatives from all of the other Klan organizations mentioned above spoke and only [ ] of Atlanta, Georgia, wanted to form one Klan organization, and give up the individual Klan groups. He advised that all other Klan groups voted not to consolidate into one Klan organization, but to remain under separate Klan leadership with their own individual Klan names. He stated delegates voted that since they had decided on March 12, 1960, not to consolidate that there would not be any reason to hold a meeting at 2523 Glass Street, Chattanooga, Tennessee, on the morning of March 13, 1960, as had been scheduled. He stated the delegates voted that there would be a meeting held at Columbia, South Carolina April 10, 1960, and that each Klan organization would select two delegates to attend this meeting. The purpose of this meeting would be for the delegates to decide upon joint aims and purposes for all Klan organizations to form a central committee for Klan organizations and a plan whereby they could work together for the same accomplishments. Informant advised the meeting was adjourned at approximately 11:30 p.m. on March 12, 1960.

[ ] advised that a heated argument resulted during this meeting between two representatives, and that during this argument one of the representatives had a heart attack and had to be removed from the hall.

[ ] on March 16, 1960, advised that he had had an opportunity to see a letter written on March 13, 1960, by [ ] Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., Atlanta, Georgia, mailing address [ ] Atlanta 1, Georgia. This letter from [ ] stated that he had attended the meeting at Chattanooga, Tennessee, on the night of March 12, 1960, and met with the representatives of other Klan groups. He stated that after seeing these individuals and discussing problems with them, he had discarded the idea of the merger between all Klan groups and thought it now best to build a new order with the kind of material that good Klans are composed of, and not take in Klan members from the already organized Klan groups.

[redacted]
[redacted] stated he was now concentrating in the formation and organization of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., and would try to build this into a large, strong Klan group. He pointed out in his letter that [redacted] Chattanooga, Tennessee, whom he had given a Kleagle (Organizer) Commission card for the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., had returned his commission to [redacted] by mail without any explanation.

Special Meeting of Klan Organizations, Columbia,
South Carolina, April 10, 1960

[redacted] advised on April 23, 1960, that the above meeting was held at Columbia, South Carolina, as planned on April 10, 1960; however, he stated that [redacted] representing the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., of Alabama, was not present.

The resolution was to institute a program whereby all klansmen would work on an educational program to educate everyone as to what the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan stood for including a segregation program opposing integration of schools, churches, and restaurants. It was introduced that they would work with citizens, citizens' groups, teachers, PTA organizations, school and church groups, as to the meaning and definition of a U. S. Citizen under the U. S. Constitution and point out that the Democratic system of the United States Government would be destroyed if complete integration were accomplished.

[redacted] made a motion that the resolution include segregation in hotels, motels, swimming pools, and beaches. This amendment was approved and added to the original resolution which was adopted. [redacted]

The various members and officials present were then asked for their comments concerning the above resolution.

[redacted] Tuscaloosa, Alabama, then spoke to the delegation. He stated he was constantly traveling throughout the State of Alabama in connection with his klan work and that great progress had been made in the State of Alabama by using an educational system and carrying to the people of the State of Alabama the aims and objectives of the klan in preserving segregation throughout the South.

AT 157-60

[redacted] for the State of Mississippi, then spoke to those present stating that he had been using an educational system similar to the one just adopted in the State of Alabama. He pointed out that his group regularly meets with civic groups, teachers, PTA groups, church groups, and other school groups in an effort to preserve segregation in the South.

[redacted] for the State of Florida from Tampa, Florida, then spoke to the group, stating an educational program of the klan had always been the basic part of any klan program, as well as for other fraternal orders and civic groups. He pointed out there had been much criticism and that the klan groups should not become involved in politics. He pointed out that in order to maintain our Democratic system of Government that klansmen must do some politics. They should exercise their right to vote and to contact others and try to persuade those to qualify and vote; that klansmen should take the issues at stake to the people and explain to them by the use of an educational program the aims and purposes of the klan and the preservation of a segregated South. He pointed out that the citizens of Florida had become tired of LEROY COLLINS, Governor, and by taking their program and desires to the people of Florida as a group on a house-to-house type campaign, meeting with civic groups, church groups, they had succeeded in their recent election by electing a Governor of Florida, CARLTON.

On his weekly visits he would pick up the applications already secured and that he stated he had never failed to organize and issue a charter in a community where he had used the above method.

KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.

The Atlanta Journal and The Atlanta Constitution, daily newspapers published in Atlanta, Georgia, in their combined edition of Sunday, September 4, 1960, carried the following article:

"KLAN SPEAKERS LASH U. S., STATE LEADERSHIP
By John Pennington

"Ku Klux Klansmen, robed, hooded and masked, gathered at the foot of Stone Mountain Saturday night. They burned two fiery crosses and deep into the night, shouted fiery speeches across a moonlit pasture.

"Speakers, chief of whom was a Baptist preacher from Columbus, assaulted the present leadership of the state and nation, both presidential candidates and integration.

"A ~~red~~ robed imperial officer who identified himself as C. H. Maddox of Savannah, of the Georgia Assn. of Klans, said the meeting consisted of representatives of 27 'splinter' Klan groups which have consolidated themselves into the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

"He said the well-known U.S. Klan, Knights of the KKK, whose imperial wizard, Eldon Edwards of College Park, recently died, is not a member of the association.

"Maddox said the Klansmen wore masks because they had that right on private property. A state anti-mask law makes the wearing of masks in public places illegal.

"Approximately 300 persons were scattered across a large pasture, listening to booming voices coming from the platform of a flat-bed truck. A country music band played for the occasion.

"Klansmen were ragaled in red, purple, green, white, and black robes. Many of them wore masks across their faces, hiding their identity. The black-robed individuals, known in Klan terminology as 'night-hawks', wore skull and cross-bones insignias. Several of those present wore full-scale Confederate uniforms.

157-168-19X4
100-356570-15

"Introduced as chief speaker was ~~Jack Johnson~~ <sup>Ed.</sup> of Columbus, described as publisher and owner of the Georgia Tribune, a segregationist paper, and pastor of a Baptist Tabernacle.

"He attacked the NAACP, presidential candidates Nixon and Kennedy, Catholicism, and the present state administration.

"Maddox said a national meeting of Klan officers and representatives is to be held Sunday."

Consolidated Meeting of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan Meeting at Stone Mountain and Atlanta, Georgia
9/2 - 5/60

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised as follows on September 6, 1960.

A meeting of the National Ku Klux Klan was held as scheduled for the Labor Day week-end at Stone Mountain, Georgia. On Friday, September 2, 1960, Klan members began to gather at the Henry Grady Hotel, Atlanta, Georgia. No formal meetings were held on this date due to poor planning and lack of coordination on the part of Klan officials.

By 10:30 A. M., September 3, 1960, Klan members began to gather at Stone Mountain, Georgia, and at noon time approximately 250 people were present. Very little was accomplished during the day and at 6:00 P. M., a formal "speech making" meeting was held, at which time approximately 800 persons were present.

[redacted] of Columbus, Georgia, was the principal speaker. In his speech he did not advocate violence but did condemn the Catholics, Jews, and Negroes.

[redacted] of Columbus, South Carolina, was dressed in a blue robe and made a speech against school integration.

Re: NATIONAL KU KLUX KLAN, Also Known As National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan
Consolidated Meeting of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan Meeting at Stone Mountain and Atlanta, Georgia
9/2 - 5/60

It was resolved and passed that the next meeting would be held October 23, 1960 in Savannah, Georgia, at the De Soto Hotel.

It was resolved and passed that their name be changed from the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan to the National Ku Klux Klan.

It was resolved and passed that the Klan flag, as previously designed, could not be accepted in view of its reference to Stone Mountain, Georgia, which in itself is a violation of Georgia law. It was decided that the matter of the Klan flag would be discussed at their next meeting.

This memorandum is loaned to you by the FBI, and neither it nor its contents are to be distributed outside the agency to which loaned.

The meeting at the Odd Fellows Hall started at 6:00 PM on December 10, 1960, with a meal. Following the meal, [redacted] served as [redacted] urged respect for Federal Government and stated citizens should fight for their way of life. He suggested formation of "branch" group of Klan groups to be known by other names such as "Sons of Liberty" to be organized by and controlled by the Klan.

[redacted] took issue with [redacted] claiming he joined the Klan when he was [redacted] years old and he did not want any names changed. [redacted] of Houston also objected, claiming such a name gave the "NAACP something to fight," and urged Klansmen to educate the people about the Klansman's way of thinking.

[redacted] of Florida claimed the people of Florida had such an organization organized to combat immigration into Florida and desired this group be expanded into other states.

[redacted] claimed such would not be effective because the Klan must control a branch organization and it could not control one already begun.

[redacted] stated Florida had tried a number of such groups such as the Citizens Committee, Sons of Liberty and Christian Rights Committee, and all had been allowed to drop and each state should organize as it saw fit.

[redacted] insisted that meetings of the Klan open and close [redacted] was allowed to offer prayers.

NATIONAL KONKLAVE MEETING,
TEXARKANA, ARKANSAS-TEXAS,
DECEMBER 10 AND 11, 1960

[ ] said he did not think the picketing with Negroes was that of Klansmen as the only way to picket a Negro was with an ax handle or a club as they did in Florida when he went down there to the sit-in demonstration. He said that when he got home he got a call from a newspaper to let them write an article for the southern people so they would come to Florida on vacation instead of just northern people. He agreed to write such an article if they would get rid of all their Negro help, which the individual representing the newspaper agreed to do and [ ] wrote the article. He held this incident up as an example of what could be done by using force to combat the Negro. He claimed the people of Florida call him the Southern Governor of the Ku Klux Klan.

He said the Post Office had Negro employees sorting mail and if the Negro got to be Postmaster General of the United States the Klan should have a code to use in mail as the Postmaster General had the right to open mail or read it by the use of machines without opening it.

[ ] claimed the Klan already had proper codes and should use them.

[ ] from Tennessee arrived at this point in the meeting and were introduced around. [ ] of the group.

[ ] asked the outcome of the national meeting before the previous one where a committee had been designated to design a flag for the Klan.

[ ] replied that pictures of Stone Mountain taken could not be printed as it was against state law and the matter should be taken up at this meeting.

[ ] then appointed a flag committee and other committees and instructed the committees to meet at the Grim Hotel following the general meeting.
